Trust A horse’s fear and flight instinct must be reduced in order for him to learn. Trust must be established in order for a horse, a prey animal, to build a relationship with a predator.	Leadership Establishing leadership is vital. Horses need and seek a competent leader.                  Trust + Respect = Leadership	Respect In order to establish respect, movement must be controlled. Horses will assume the leadership role if their human handler does not.
